THE MUSIC OF CHRISTOPHER ALEXANDER

About the Work

The definitive opening hits from the piano begin this triumphant work appropriate for the Christmas season. The echoic texture of the voices illustrates the resounding nature of the text before the chorus expands to traditional harmonic chords. A contrasting middle section gives more motion to the work before building to a recapitulation of the opening stanza. This will be a great opener for your choirs at your holiday concert or worship service.

*I sing the birth was born tonight,
The Author both of life and light;
The angels so did sound it,
And like the ravished shepherds said,
Who saw the light, and were afraid,
Yet searched, and there they found it.*

*The Son of God, the eternal King,
That did us all salvation bring,
And freed the soul from danger;
He whom the whole world could not take,
The Word, which heav'n and earth did make,
Was now laid in a manger.*

*The Father's wisdom willed it so,
The Son's obedience knew no "No,"
Both wills were in one stature;
And as that wisdom had decreed,
The Word was now made Flesh indeed,
And took on Him our nature.*

*What comfort by Him do we win?
Who made Himself the Prince of sin,
To make us heirs of glory?
To see this Babe, all innocence,
A Martyr born in our defense,
Can man forget this story?*

— Ben Jonson (1572–1637)
