THE MUSIC OF CHRISTOPHER ALEXANDER

About the Work

This deceptively simple Christmas tune is rich with its nontraditional key signature, homophonic texture, and harmonic suspensions. It can be performed with or without piano accompaniment, making it accessible for singers to perform anywhere. Set like a benediction, this work would be perfect as a concert closer for your entire choir department to sing together at the end of your holiday concert. The text by John Whittier reminds us to be thankful for the Christmas season and share that same sentiment with others “all the year through”.

*Somehow, not only for Christmas,
But all the long year through,
The joy that you give to others
Is the joy that comes back to you.*

*And the more you spend on blessing
The poor and lonely and sad,
The more of your heart's possessing
Returns to make you glad.*

— John Greenleaf Whittier (1807–1892)
