THE MUSIC OF CHRISTOPHER ALEXANDER

About the Work

The Phillips Brooks poem creates a beautiful picture of the winter wonderland usually associated with the Christmas season, and singing its praises are the yuletide carolers. This uplifting a cappella setting, akin to singing a yuletide carol, gives the choral ensemble the opportunity to perform anywhere of the winter holiday and all its wonderment. Singers will have a delight performing this work at your next concert and special events in your community.

*Christmas in lands of the fir-tree and pine,
Christmas in lands of the palm-tree and vine,
Christmas where snow peaks stand solemn and white,
Christmas where cornfields stand sunny and bright.
Everywhere, everywhere, Christmas tonight!*

*Christmas where children are hopeful and gay,
Christmas where old men are patient and gray,
Christmas where peace like a dove in his flight,
Broods o'er brave men in the thick of the fight;
Everywhere, everywhere, Christmas tonight!*

*For the Christ-child who comes is the Master of all;
No palace too great--no cottage too small.
The angels who welcome Him sing from the height,
"In the city of David a King in His might;
Everywhere, everywhere, Christmas tonight!"*

*Then let every heart keep its Christmas within--
Christ's pity for sorrow, Christ's hatred of sin.
Christ's care for the weakest, Christ's courage for right,
Christ's dread of the darkness, Christ's love of the light:
Everywhere, everywhere, Christmas tonight!*

*So the stars of the midnight which compass us round
Shall see a strange glory and hear a sweet sound,
And cry, "Look! The earth is aflame with delight,
O sons of the morning, rejoice at the sight!"
Everywhere, everywhere, Christmas tonight!*

— Phillips Brooks (1835-1893)
