THE MUSIC OF CHRISTOPHER ALEXANDER

About the Work

A reminder for us all to celebrate and give thanks for the reason of the Christmas season – the birth of Jesus Christ. With an enchanting pop-like melody and lyrical accompaniment patterns, this comforting message in song will be a highlight at your next performance.

*The first few lights glow brightly,
as you watch the season start.
You know you should be happy,
but don't feel it in your heart.*

*Instead you think about a time
when someone laughed with you,
and the love you shared then filled your soul.
But too soon it was through.*

*So Christmas comes with sadness,
and a yearning deep inside,
a thirst for love and peace and hope that will not be denied.*

*Late one night you hear a voice,
so soft and without blame,
and then, surprised, you realize,
He's calling you by name.*

*"I know your hurt and loneliness,
the heartache that you bear.
I listen and I cry with you
through every single prayer.*

*I promised in the manger
and fulfilled it from the cross.
I built a home that's filled with love
for all those who are lost.*

*So let Him come and heal your heart
and give you rest within.
For my way is kind and gentle and will bring you joy again."*

*His words still echo through the year
a vow that He made true
"As long as there's a Christ in us, I will be in love with you."*

— Jack Zavada
